The Reason for the Family Defense Award 2021 to «Alliance Defending Freedom» (ADF International), represented by Executive Director Paul Coleman

Kristen Koalisjon Norge (KKN) bestows the Family Defense Award 2021 upon «Alliance Defending Freedom» (ADF International), represented by Executive Director Paul Coleman.

As a faith-based legal advocacy organization that protects fundamental freedoms and promotes the inherent dignity of all people, and working on an international level, ADF has a full-time presence at all the institutions of strategic international importance in the world, using their insight and expertise to the maximum to help people in need of freedom, dignity and justice.

The Family Defense Award is awarded annually to an individual, group or organization that has stood up for families and the dignity of human beings in an extraordinary way, in Norway, Europe or beyond. ADF International fulfills this criterion in an exemplary way. We have especially noted the repeated defense of families in the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) - for grave violations of the European Convention on Human Rights in several of the 47 Council of Europe Member States that hold to the Convention. By «defense of families» we mean in every phase of life - from conception until natural death.

ADF has also delivered numerous high-level legal contributions and assessments in the political battles that are ongoing in the institutions and nations of Europe, working to shape European and international law in accordance with the words of the great Roman, Marcus Tullius Cicero, 2000 years ago:

«The safety of the people shall be the highest law».

We hereby bestow the Family Defense Award 2021 upon «Alliance Defending Freedom» (ADF International), represented by Executive Director Paul Coleman!

Oslo/Vienna, June 29th, 2021

Honorably,

Jan-Aage Torp,
Chairman of Kristen Koalisjon Norge (KKN)
